Editor's Message

Welcome to the Fall issue #21 of The Casement. The big Omaha Labor Day week end show was a success. A good number of ACES were at the show. We held an informal meeting on Sat. of the show at 1:00 p.m. See Steve Drakes notes on the meeting later in this issue. I would like to comment on two areas of business, though. The first being that of a value system like NATCA will be implemented in the upcoming catalogs. Many coin and exnumia dealers have expressed their feelings and nearly all stated that a catalog without some type of value listing will not meet the needs of the hobby. Just about everyone wants some idea of value. We all realize that putting prices in a new catalog like the upcoming encased books is difficult but state catalogers probably will have some kind of idea on value. We will need ACES to give their insights as to value especially after the first draft. The second is the issue of raising the dues. It cost about $2.20 each for most issues to print and mail. So $7.00 is not enough. At the meeting we voted to raise the dues up to a ceiling of $15.00 a year but for now we will raise the dues from $7.00 a year to $10.00 a year.

The reason is that we have four sources that can help add income, sale of pass issues of The Casement, auction donations and auction consignment fees, sale of club encased and potential profit from the Club's encased books. If after this we still can't meet cost then dues will go up again at a later date. If this should happen members will be notified and a date will be given as to the time of an increase.

Also, to keep cost down each issue will be limited to a certain number of pages so that we can send each issue for 77 cents or the rate that this will be with the new increase. This also will keep printing cost down where we can make it on $2.50 or less an issue. When listing a state with a large listing we may have to use two issues.

Duane's auction was a good one. Several rare "good fors" went for top dollar. All of the encased were in the mail bid portion of the NATCA sale. All went for decent bids. A prices realized will be listed later in this issue or for sure in the Winter Issue.

Two state catalogers, Nevada and Texas, were inadvertently left off the list in issue 20. They are back on.

Jim Lawnczak again has some nice information to pass along to members on the field of encasements. He also sent us a very extensive list of Michigan encased. Jim did a wonderful detailed piece of work. His masterpiece is 48 pages and he is not done. He sent a complimentary copy of this his first draft to all his contributors asking for corrections and additions. He has 305 cataloged and states that there are plenty more to be cataloged. In 1998 Jim had 460 Ohio entries and now it is up to 850. Gerald McLellan sent ACE a great list of Mass. encased that he has in his collection. Gerald has a very extensive collection but states that he knows of 30 that he doesn't have. Vic Nolan sent us a fantastic catalog of Pennsylvania encased that he, Rich Gaetano and Herman Aqua put together. There are 119 pages and is truly another masterpiece. Dan Agler sent a wonderful Texas list that appears to be very extensive and well organized as well. Dan has a great start for a project that he has just started in recent months. My Wisconsin catalog that I am working on looks rather anemic compared to the recent ones that were sent to ACE.

Once again when renewing, always write your ACE number and expiration number on your check. These numbers are located behind your name on the mailing label. Also, kindly list your contributions on separate pieces of paper. A letter to members on one, classified on another, bids on another, etc.

Sorry, this issue is two months late. I can only say sorry and my excuse is my job. (2 nights a week and 6 to 6 each day - there are trying to kill me, this my last year before retirement. Don't they know that ACE is more fun and almost more important!)
Happy Collecting! J. Binsfeld

 Lawniczak, Jim writes, "You can put the second star on maverick (86), the Alliance Zone Cab piece. I did call the Alliance Ohio library and they checked the 1950 Alliance directory for me. The librarian did not believe that there were 4 digit phone numbers in the 50s and was surprised to find that indeed Zone
 Cab was listed in the directory with the phone number that is on this piece -- 5222."

 Baltimore, MD, Hajek, Millard
 writes, "I am the ACE cataloger who listed the Esskay encased MD-EC-28 attributed to Baltimore, MD. Esskay has been in business in Baltimore as far as 1922 with a listing for that year's Baltimore City Directory. A couple years ago the business was sold to Smithfield of Virginia and the meat packing plant in Baltimore was closed.
 However, Esskay products and particularly hot dogs are sold at Oriole Park in Camden Yards,
 the home of the Baltimore Orioles. The Esskay packages still carry a Baltimore, MS address. Unfortunately I have no knowledge or information about the Portland, Oregon listing.

 Hope this helps to answer your question and confusion about the encased I listed for Baltimore."

 1948 hs, ham - Dallas,TX,
 Cross, Terry writes, "This is from Dallas, but I can't say when it was issued. 1948 City Directory shows Clark and Parker Autos at a different address (Maple Springs), but shows John M.
 Calrk and Curtis Parker to be in the auto selling business together.
 However, the Fred Johnson Auto
 Co. is the occupant of 4825 Ross, together with Shay's Garage. In the 1950 City Directory, Clark and Parker Autos was on Marquette Street. A different auto sales business was at 4825
 Ross. In 1952, Clark and Parker
 Autos was at still a different address, but not at 4825 Ross."

DO-5(482)13 - Doubleday Book Shops, books, records\\Good Luck (luck symbols) 1946, rd, al, (grooves as a record under lettering) comment from Jim Lawniczak, Jim writes, "Doubleday Books, records piece, no. (482) -- first, I have never seen this piece with the word shops on it and I don't think that is correct -- if anyone has a piece with shops on it, please send a copy of it to me as it would be a separate piece for cataloging in the NY catalog. Second, I thank Al Zaika for persistence -- I concur with the change in attribution of this piece from Long Island City, New York City to Garden City. I forgot that I actually have here at home a Doubleday book from the early 1950s -- they were Isaac Asimov's first publisher and he was one of my favorite authors. It is the Foundation trilogy. Anyway, I opened to the title page and voila, "Doubleday & Company, Inc. Garden City N.Y." It wasn't until the late 80s that Doubleday, following a corporate merger, began listing New York City on its books. Garden City is not in NYC, it is a close in suburb out on Long Island in Nassau County about 5 miles from the Queens border. I called Doubleday in Garden City and was told that the corporate offices of Doubleday have always been out in Garden City and the editorial offices have always been in Manhattan."

PA-8(759)19 - Parkyakarkus Lucky Penny, 1938, Beverly Hills, Hollywood, CA, additional information - Lawniczak/ Zaika, Jim L. writes, "Parkyakarkus was Harry Einstein, a radio comedian and actor, the father of Albert Einstein. No, not the scientist, the actor who has taken the stage name Albert Brooks. According to the World Almanac, Albert Einstein Brooks was born in 1947 in Beverly Hills, CA. But where was Parkyakarkus when this piece came out in 1938? Many of the early radio shows originated from New York City, so I did some checking on the internet(there are plenty of articles there about Albert Brooks, including his Playboy interview) to see if this piece should be in the N.Y. catalog.

Both Parkyakarkus and Brook's mother, Thelma Berstein, with stage name of Thelma Leeds, were in a number of Hollywood pictures in the 1930s, beginning in 1936, before this piece came out. According to the introduction to Albert Brook's Playboy interview, his parents "met as contract players at RKO in the Thirties!" RKO is a Hollywood studio, now located in Los Angeles. So I would think this piece should be property attributed to Beverly Hills, Hollywood or Los Angeles, pick one. If I had to choose, I'd pick Beverly Hills, where Albert Einstein was born."

Al Zaika writes, "Parkyakarkus. This was the name created by comedian Harry Einstein, based on some Greek men that hung out at his fathers antique shop. Harry made his radio debut around 1930 on radio station KNAC, in Boston, Ma. He was soon discovered by Eddie Cantor and became a regular member of Cantor's weekly radio show. He later made movies for RKO Studios and worked with many of the famous Hollywood stars. In 1941, he had his own weekly show, "Meet Me at Parky's", which ran for about 10 years. He died in 1958. In my opinion, Hollywood, Ca. should be the attribution for his encased cent."

PE-10(763)19 - A.D. Pelunis/De Soto, Plymouth, 1950-d, Lakewood, Ohio(Cleveland area), Lawniczak/Reznick, Jim L. writes, "I don't think this piece is a complete maverick. I have four references to 1950, 1950D and 1952D Pelunis pieces from "Lakewood." Also, I have seen a 1953D piece pictured on eBay, which says: "A.G. Pelunis/BO. 2-6433//Lakewood/DeSoto[hole] Plymouth. So the Cleveland area town that the piece is from is a westside town, Lakewood." Joe R, says, " I have a 1950 piece that states Lakewood, Ohio."

PO-3(767)19 - Pomeroy's World's Fair of Gifts, Lucky Token/Save This Token/It May Be Worth Many Dollars to You At Pomeroy's, 1937. *PA, Zaika/ Aqua, Dr. Herman writes, "There was a chain of Pomeroy's-many stores throughout the East - I know about 4 PA stores - Wilkes-Barre, Reading, Pottsville and Harrisburg. The encased probably came from one of the above cities; which one - I don't know about. There are a few tokens issued by Pomeroy and some have specific locations." Al Z. writes, "Several of my business directories show that Pomeroy,s main store was in Harrisburg, Pa. and the Reading, Pa. store was a branch. I could not find any other locations for this store."

FA-12(797)20 - Fairfax Paint Co./703 N. Fairfax Ave WH 6675 WH 5615, 1947, *Los Angeles, CA, Reznick, Joe says, "from an old collector friend."

GR-11(798)20 - The Shoe Box/169 No. High St./CA 1-9222/"Sammy Grossman" 1958D, Columbus, Ohio, Lawniczak/Nolan, Jim L. writes, "New Maverick 798 is from Columbus Ohio and is cataloged as (OH)-(COL)-SH-10 in my Ohio catalog. It is verified by reference to a second encased that Sammy put out with 1968D or 1971D cent: "The Shoe

Box/163 No. High St. Col's, O//221-9222/"Sammy Grossman"\\kmangb." That has catalog no. OH-Col-SH-12. Vic N. writes, "Sammy Grossman, Columbus Ohio."

Newark, NJ, Aqua/Lawniczak/Zaika, Jim L. writes, "I have just always assumed that the Newark Ledger, Maverick 800, was from New Jersey. Today's Newark Paper is the Star Ledger. This piece is often sold and it is universally attributed to NJ." Al Z. writes, "Newark Ledger, Newark, NJ newspaper, personal knowledge. I sold this newspaper while living in Newark."

RI-10(803)20 - Jos. Rivardo/Appliance-Sports shop/? address ?/Phone Plaza 1545, Detroit, MI, Lawniczak, Jim writes, "Bob Perdue sent me maverick 803, the Jos. Rivardo Appliance piece. It is in my Michigan catalog as MI-DET-JO-10 and I believe is not actually a maverick but that Detroit, Mich. is on the piece (that was the unreadable part). However, the information I have on the piece is second hand, so I would appreciate for the Michigan catalog any further information from anyone who has this piece."

SE-10(804)20 - Sear's Service Must Shine In '49 Keep Me Shiny, 1946D, Chicago, Ill, Lawniczak/Zaika, Jim L. writes, "I am going to guess that the Sear's Service piece (804) is probably the Sears department store, which I believe is headquartered in Sears Tower, Chicago, IL. This piece must have come with used cents, there are quite a few different dates known for this piece from the thirties and forties -- well before the '49 on the piece."

Al Zaika writes, "Sear's Service, Sears Roebuck, National Headquarters, Chicago, IL, Ref. - Thomas Register of American Manufacturers."

SH-3(805)20 - Shenandoah Valley National Bank/85th Anniversary/ Winchester's Old - Strong Bank, 1950D, Winchester, VA, Lawniczak/Zaika, Jim writes, "without even leaving my desk here, I can verify no. 805 as Winchester, Virginia. Winchester is in the Shenandoah Valley." Al Z. writes, ref. - 1957 Polk's Bank Directory."

SH-4(806)20 - Shulan's 25 So. Main St./Good For $1.00 on purchase of $10.00 & Over, Akron, OH, Lawniczak, Jim writes, "Maverick No. 806 is from Akron, Ohio and is cataloged in my Ohio encased catalog as (OH)-(AKR)-SH-14. I assume the 25 So. Main St. is a typo -- it's actually 85. It is verified by a 1927 piece with the address and Akron, O and by a call I made to Akron public library -- in 1948, Shulan's only store in Akron was at 85 S. Main St."

SM-5(812)20 - Henry P. Smith/Member of Congress, 1970D, North Tonawanda, NY, Lawniczak, Jim writes, "Maverick 812 is the third piece issued by Smith and is cataloged in my NY catalog as (NY)-(NOT)-SM-14. Here's what I said about the piece in the NY catalog: There was only one Henry P. Smith who was a member of Congress so that absolutely identifies this piece. Henry Smith was born in North Tonawanda in 1911. He attended the public schools and the private Nichols School of Buffalo. He went to law school and practiced law in Ithaca from 1936 to 1941 and then in North Tonawanda until 1961, when he was elected mayor of North Tonawanda. He became a Niagara County judge in 1963. He was elected as a Republican to Congress in 1964 and served from 1964 to 1975, when he voluntarily retired. He died in 1995. TE-6(825)20 - Terminal Motors/Rambler/2750 W. Lawrence/R.A. 8-1230, 1960D Chicago, IL Coursel/Reznick/Hoffman Joe R. says that there was a Terminal Theater in Chicago called that because the El-train ends there and Terminal Motors most likely is there as well, Joe's wife grow up four blocks from there. Ralph Coursel sent an ad for Ramblers, Terminal at 2750 W. Lawrence, May 21, 1959, Chicago Daily News. John H. wrote, "This looks like a Chicago address, confirmed that with a big help from Joel Reznick, whose wife apparently came from right near there. Per Joel this was located near the "terminus" of one of the local elevated train lines (Ravenswood El) hence the name for it and a number of other businesses in the area."

T1-3(826)20 - Representative Silver Award/Time, The Weekly News Magazine/1923-1948\\Time Means Money/ A Quarter Century of News Reporting, 1948 quarter *Chicago or NYC, NY, Lawniczak/Reznick/Zaika, Jim L. writes, "Maverick 826 is very interesting. I actually have the piece in its original mailing box. The box was postmarked, Chicago, Ill., June 17, 1948 and had a return address of; "Time/Incorporated/Agency Division/115 East Ohio Street/Chicago 11, Illinois." There is 6 cent canceled stamp on the box. Unfortunately, someone scratched out the addressee of my box -- it was addressed to "85-16 165 Street/Jamaica 3, New York."

Al Z writes, Time, The Weekly News, Executive offices, Rockefeller Center, New York, NY, Ref. -1963 issue of Time magazine. Joe R. feels its New York."

UP-1(828)20 - Uptown Radio Co./16021 Woodward Ave., 1946 Highland Park, Detroit area, Lawniczak/Reznick, Jim L. writes, Maverick 828 is in my Michigan catalog as (MI)-(HIG)-UP-10. The business is still there at the same address(16021 Woodward) today. Highland Park is an enclave of Detroit. I called the Highland Park City Clerk's office (the city offices are a few blocks south of this business at 12050 Woodward) to verify that Highland Park existed when this piece was made in 1946. They verified that Highland Park was incorporated in 1918, making this a Highland Park piece (16021) is south of McNichols, a/k/a a Six Mile road and so is in Highland Park).

VA-2(830)20 -Vagabond Village Truck Stop/U/S. Routes 24 & 127, 1946, Cecil, Ohio, Lawniczak, Jim writes, "Maverick 830 isn't too difficult to find, just follow U.S. Routes 24 and 127 and see where they meet. It is between the Ohio towns of Sherwood to the north and Cecil to the south. I have cataloged this piece to Cecil as (OH)-(CEC)-VA-10 and here is what I have to say about it in the Ohio catalog: U.S. Routes 24 and 127 meet about 15 miles from Indiana border, south of the town of Sherwood and north of the town of Cecil. There is still Vagabond Village Truck Stop on Route 24 in Cecil in January 2000. I called the restaurant and the owner told me her parents bought the restaurant in the early 1950s. Route 127 and Route 24 travel together for a couple of miles and the restaurant is on that stretch. According to the owner, its mailing address is Cecil. "

WA-11(833)20 - Eugene Wald/605 N. Water St./Optician Jeweler, 1948, Milwaukee, WI, Casper/Reznick, Tom C. writes, " This piece is from Milwaukee and is listed in the 1953-54 Milwaukee City Directory at this address. WI-9(838)20 - William Valley Bank, Bank of freindly service, 1922D, Williamstown, PA, Aqua, Dr. Herman writes, should be Williams, and is from Williamstown, PA, copy of the listing from D & B.

WO-5(840)20 - Woodland, Yolo Tractor Co./Olive-Celtrac-Towner, 1948D, *Woodland, CA, Kohlhardt/Hoffman, Al says there is a Woodland, Calif. in Yolo County. Maybe Duane has checked it out. John H. writes, " Occasionally one of the mavericks will jump out at me, as was the case with (840). Woodland, Yolo Tractor Co. It's from Woodland California -Yolo Tractor did indeed exist there on West Main St. in 1948 per a call to the reference people at the Woodland Public Library. Yolo is the California County in which Woodland is located. It's not listed in the recent California encased reference. I would love to try to purchase it or trade for it if the person who has it is willing. Otherwise, a rubbing of it would be greatly appreciated if possible, and if Duane Feisel hasn't already contacted you.

New Maverick Listing

Send your mavericks to the editor. Members quite often inquire about purchasing listed mavericks. This is only possible if the owner submits the piece(s) to the club auction. Members can put minimum bids.

Mavericks are numbered and grouped with the first two letters of the surname or major topic. Each letter group will have its own set of numbers and each piece will also be numbered according to the order listed. The issue number will follow the order number.

A maverick has no indication of town and/or state. Members are encouraged to attribute and elaborate on their conclusion with personal accounts and reference used.

Letters from Members

I have attached the latest list of Texas encased coins. There are about 375 listings though on some I don't have a complete description. Of these only about 57 of these are mavericks. I have had little response from ACE readers (3, Walt Hinkle, Jim Treadway and Terry Cross). Terry has been keeping in contact by email with new additions & help with maverick attributions for the Dallas/Ft. Worth area. As the time draws near to include the Texas listing in the ACE journal, "I've resorted to emailing those people bidding on encased at ebay. I hope I don't offend anyone by doing that. If you or any ACE embers have any additions to this list I would appreciate having the opportunity to add them to it.

Dan Agler #238

The ad from a dealer states $5.00 paid for your email address(restrictions apply). I sent the dealer my email address the first time I read his ad that was on the internet but he did not have the (restrictions apply). I have yet to receive any money but he has sent literature to purchase some items. What a mistake I made. What legitimate business would pay for an email address unless he planned to sell it to other companies? Since I changed my email addresses the requests for new credit cards, attempts to have me remortgage my house along with Vitamin ads for Canada, England etc. have stopped entirely. I am not saying the dealer sold my addresses because I do not know what he did with it. My only suggestion is to check into this ad and see if it meets ACE's code of ethics. Thanks, Chuck Berger

I sent you a check for my ACE dues back in August. I still have not received the Fall issue of The Casement. Is everything OK?
Dave Smith

Hope everything is going well with you and the Casement. I really look forward to every issue. I am e-mailing you my new home address and would appreciate it if you can update your files accordingly, thanks.
Tom Bradbury

It was good to meet you at the Omaha show. I hope you found a lot of stuff for your collection.

The cost of my encased South Carolina quarter is $5.00 with a SASE. I have sold several from my website and on ebay.
Anthony Chibbaro

I'd like to report a listing for Alaska, which should've come to your attention by now since one was offered in Dick Grinold's sale of May 2000:
Obv. Rainier Beer/ Alaska's Favorite/ Since 1878/ Murray Luther, Alaska Sales Mgr.
Rev. kmangb
Al. rd. 1957D

The above piece is clearly AK Terr. but what I find interesting is that there's an associated issue to it, i.e. the foll:
Obv. Rainier Beer/ Alaska's Favorite/Since 1878/Les M. Larson, Alaska Sales Mgr. Seattle
Rev. kmangb
Al. Rd. 1956D

With regard to the RI list of Casement #20, I have a 1915 cent encased in the foll:
Obv. The Providence Brewing Co's/Bohemian Beer/New Englands/Finest
(I don't know if its a typo in the listing or a different variety, but my piece has New Englands - no apostrophe separating the 'S'. The listed piece has only New England.)
Finally, I'm curious to know if it has ever been suggested that a standard format of cataloguing be adopted by ACE. Not that there's anything wrong with any individual lists, just the inconsistencies of style. - just a thought.
All the best to you, and again, I always look forward eagerly to every issue of The Casement.
Great Job.
Sincerely. George Gentle

I received the Summer, 2000 issue of The Casement and read it cover to cover. It was excellent as always.

I can identify one maverick encased (833). This piece is from Milwaukee, WI and is listed in the 1953-54 Milwaukee City Directory at this address.

I now have a computer and e-mail address and you can list my e-mail address in the next issue of The Casement.

I hope you, Jerry and Phil have a safe trip and a pleasant time in Omaha. I'm staying close to home and will scour this area for new finds.

Sincerely, Tom Casper
P.S. I have no problem with raising dues to $10 or whatever it takes to come out.

First, on the ACE "known ACE emails"

1. George Gentile is listed under B.
2. It sure would be nice if you could somehow note the changes and/or new emails.

Second, re: shapes. I have an interesting piece from the Badger State Bank, which is a plastic keychain, with a cent encased on one side. Let me know if you want a picture, or if it is common.

Third, re: Auctions. May I place a single bid on multiple lots?

Rich Hartzog

Anyone know anything about the Marathon Brewery encased? Dennis Tacke

It would be nice for someone to write an article on how one finds encased to list for a state. I'm sure not every cataloger has all the encased that they list. Do old exonomia catalogs work? If so, how does one get these?

Also, I would like information on how to find encased to buy? Where do ACE members find their encased to buy and how many to they find to buy in a year? I would like more articles on latest finds? There has only been a few articles related to this. I went to all the back issues with finding only a couple.

Is it possible to list the value of the listed encased in the upcoming books.

M. Allen

Received my first issue of the Casement. Hadn't fully digested all the information nor abbreviations. It'll just take time.

But decided that before you sell out on your Club ACE set of encased coins I'd order 2 sets, enclosed is a check for $10.00. Send one set to me and one to my friend.

Sincerely, Bob. L

Thanks for my first issue of The Casement - very nice. I've enclosed some maverick rubbings. Sure would like to know where "Mead's Fine Bread" is from.

Best regards,
Al K.

I only have time for a few quick things this month.

First, I hope to have the NY catalog to you by the end of the month, but it's a mamouth undertaaking.

I have a few comments on the Mavericks. I had a long and very nice talk with Joel Reznick and he is excited about finding more mavericks, so it seems maverick fever is spreading. Our group seems to do better with mavericks than other groups --I think we are more focused on it, plus encased usually have more clues than other types of tokens.

Jim Lawniczak

Enclosed my check for 2001 dues of $7.00.

I'm glad we straighten out what a vulcanite token(or encasement) was all about.

Nolan and I finished our work on the PA listing. You should have received it at this point in time.

Take Care, Herman Aqua

Do you or anyone have any catalogs on encased coins. If so please advise as to price etc.

Thank you,

Richard Striley

In your financial report you state that you are overdrawn by $69.76 and this is the first time.

I have printed the renewal subscriptions on the top half of this letter. The renewals are from issue 19 and issue 20. Our dues are $7.00 a year of which $1.75 is used to print each issue of the Encasement.

Since issue 20 has already been printed and paid for I have listed the number of issues that each of the above people paid for and the money that should be in an escrow account (savings). The renewals from issue 19 amounts to 74 prepaid issues of $129.50. The renewals from issue 20 amounts to 106 prepaid issues of $185.50. Just using the last 2 issues you should have $315.00 in an escrow. ATCO got in trolube by selling life time memberships. A club can not allow people to pay 3 or 4 years in advance as interest onsavings accounts do not keep up with inflation and very soon the club is in trouble. I noticed you have people paid up in advance 12, 17, 14 and a lot of 7 issues.

Just going back to issue 19 and 20 your financial picture is in excess of $384.76 in the red. Your expenses to get issue 20 out is $2.21 for each member. You are only collecting $1.75 from each member.

I would like to present this report at your meeting at the token show.

Thanks, Chuck Berger

I am very excited to be joining the club. I would like to take this oppportunity to thank one of your members, Carol Allen, for introducing me to your publication and group. My main collecting interest is for Washington State and West Coast encasements. I hope to be able to draw knowledge as well as contribute info from my area through my enrollment in the club. I would also like to purchase the A.C.E. set of encased coins that I read about.

I look forward to receiving my first issue.

Thank You So Much,
Ron Mui

I just recived my first issue of the Casement and read the part about increasing the dues. You mentioned that the postage was one of the reasons. Maybe your method of shipping could very well be part of the problem. Enclosed is a jacket cover that needs no expensive envelope and no address label. It may even save on postage cost. If you can save just 10 cent per casement and 5 cent on just the envelope, that 15 cent each. Rough guess, you'd save approx. $30 - four times a year.

Enclosed is a SASE please send me the list for _____. Put me down also for book one when it comes out.

Also, if you have a list of abbreviations it would help a newcomer. I can figure out some but not enough. kmahgl/ib/gl, hs, al, ham, au?? I'm not in the forest yet, and can still see the trees.

Name withheld by request...

This money order is for the three ACE Coin Set at $5.00 and the other three is to help cover the negative cash flow.
Thanks, Gary Allgeier

Is it possible to buy a listing of all mavericks identified by ACE?

I hope things are well in Wisconsin, a nice rainy day here.

While I 'm writing I'll include a couple of new mavericks I picked up.

1962D, hs, kmangb/ib/gl-American Physicians Insurance/Co. I did a web search for this Co. and it's still in existence and headquartered in Austin, Texas.

1956D, hs, kmayhgl//Golden Anniversary Klaus/the store of quality/1906-1956 1935-hs-kmangb/ib/gl//on our table you'll find/Yellow Label/"Truly a Family Syrup"/For Health,Food, and flavor I did a web search for this piece also and it's still sold in the south. I think it was headquartered in Alabama.

Bob Perdue

Enclsod is my M.O. for Coins from club auction. Great bunch of encased. Thank you, Jack T.

As you can see, one of your readers praised your publication and convinced me to subscribe. Looking forward to hearing from you. Matt M.

Hi there, Sorry for not paying sooner. Enjoy the publication very much. Hope that someday there could be a listing of the various shelled encasements and also a denomination listing. Also a price range would be helpful. A guide by subject would make a good project. R.C.

Thanks for the tokens. I'm always happy to add a few pieces to my collection.

A news released enclosed. ACE members might be more interested in the abbr. page. (an on-going work)
Thanks, Rich

I met Page Mann on Ebay, and he asked me if I belonged to ACE. Now, this has got to sound a little strange, but I've been collecting coins for over forty years and never heard of ACE.

But, I have developed a rapacious appetite for the little encased devils, and am very interested in your organization, and publications.

Please send the particulars and membership form if you will to me.

Warmest Regards, J.D.

This is the second time that I have mailed this letter. The first one was returned to me because I left out the 5 on your box number.

Thats not saying much about your local P.O. employees. A.Z.

Thank you and an enjoying the great work you are doing with The Casement. Best Wishes, N.B.

Received an application from Charles L. Turner from Louisville, KY at a recent coin show. Currently I really don't know if I will pursue encased coins other then buying several unique pcs. once in awhile. But by subscribing to the club for a year and reviewing your newsletter for awhile, I will have a better knowledge of this hobby. The first I was aware of Encased Coins was an article in the Canadian Coin News written by Chris Boyer, which I have enclosed. R.L.

Enclosed is a check in the amount of Ten Dollars for 2001 annual dues to the Associated Collectors of Encased.

I have read that dues might be increased so I am sending this amount. If it hasn't increased then the remaining amount will be donated to the club.

I enjoy the Journal/Newsletter The Casement very much and certainly learn a lot about encased coins. Keep up the good work and the best wishes to you and yours. Sincerely, S.S.

I'm in need of a few encased to fill my 50 state collection. Need Ala, Alas., Ariz., Ark., Conn., Del., GA., Haw., Kans., LA., Maine, MN, Miss., Mont., NM., OK., OR, RI., SC., SD, TX, VT and Wyo. Thought maybe you or ACE readers could help. I would have to buy any as I have no traders. Only my personal collection.

Take Care and Many Thanks, Alfred Schubert, 1931 E. Prospect #509, Ashtabula, OH., 44004-5336

ACE Adopts NATCA's Scale for estimated Value

Duane Feisel came up with the following scale for estimated value which will be used by ACE in future catalogs.

- EV1 - up to $2.00
- EV2 - $2.00 to $4.00
- EV3 - $4.00 to $8.00
- EV4 - $8.00 to $16.00
- EV5 - $16.00 to $32.00
- EV6 - $32.00 to $64.00
- EV7 - $64.00 to $128.00
- EV8 - $128.00 to $256.00
- EV9 - $256.00 to $512.00

The low end obviously would be for a lower grade and the high end would be for a better grade. EV1 would be for very common encased and most likely a recent date. The EV9 category would be for the very rare and desirable. This would be the category for the unusual shaped encased, and early date and/or a different denomination. The range allows for flexibility. Let's face it most token and encased collectors will pay a premium depending on availability and if the piece meets within their collecting area of interest and location (City/State).

Kennedy Medal

by Jim Lawniczak

Here is a picture of a Kennedy medal off eBay that looks like an encased with a 1964 Kennedy half dollar in it but is not. It is often sold as an encased. If you look carefully at the half dollar and compare it to this medal, you will notice some differences. for example, all on the reverse" 1. the medal has no dot before of after the "Half Dollar" as on the U.S. coin; 2. there are ten stars over E Pluribus Unum on the medal instead of nine on the U.S. coin and 3. the orientation of the four stars to the right of the eagle's head is different. This piece come in a golden or nickel color and sells for $10 to $15.

News Release: Information on Exonumia Shows and Fraternal Abbreviations from Rich Hartzog

Rich Hartzog
World Exonumia
POB 4143
Rockford IL 61110
<http://www.exonumia.com>
<mailto:hartzog@exonumia.com>

Rich Hartzog of World Exonumia announced his web site www.exonumia.com is now featuring a free service for collectors and show promoters. A page on his site will list all shows with any exonumia dealers, including Token and Medal shows, numismatic shows, military and Civil War shows. Any promoter or dealer may have information listed on the page. Even a single dealer with exonumia, setting up at any public show, may request a free listing. Collectors are urged to check this site frequently for updates.

Another new service is a listing of all known fraternal organizations and societies with their abbreviations. Many exonumia items are only identified by their society initials. While some lists of such abbreviations have been published, this is the first known web page for exonumia collectors. It should help identify many items. Suggestions for new listings are welcomed.

Hartzog offers a number of features on his www.exonumia.com web site, including an extensive token and medal book list, a list of stolen exonumia, fakes and fantasy items, articles on Slave Tags and Indian Peace medals, his full auction catalogs, and the Ultimate Exonumia Link pages. The link pages include several hundred links, to all known exonumia sites and articles. It includes all political, elongated coin, military, GAR/UCV, commercial manufacturing and other groups, as well as all societies, dealers and collectors with pages or email addresses.

Sid Williams Childrens Shoes, Maverick I.D. by Jim Lawnizak

I just had extraordinary luck in identifying a maverick (not one of yours though) that I thought I'd share it with you and our members. There was a 1957D piece for sale on eBay which reads: "Hood PF Canvas Shoes// Sid Williams Childrens Shoes/ 1478 Hertel Ave.\\ KMANGB.

I identified to piece to Buffalo, N.Y. in about 5 minutes. First I went on the Internet to Altavista.com and did a search for "Hertel Ave." Quite a few entries were found but the first two indicated Buffalo, N.Y., so I immediately switched over to the Yahoo map service and asked Yahoo to show me 1478 Hertel Ave., Buffalo, N.Y. Yahoo gave a match, telling me that the address was a Buffalo address and making it worth my while to check further in Buffalo.

I then called the Buffalo and Erie County Historical Society, pressed 5 for library and the kind librarian got out the 1957 Buffalo directory for me and looked under Williams. And there he was -- Sid Williams and wife Belle with the shoe store on 1478 Hertel Ave. and residence at 1394 Amherst St. Apt. 19. And so the piece was verified to Buffalo and will go into the upcoming NY catalog as (NY)-(BUF)-HE-20 (the HE-10 piece is the interesting 1909 Indian piece for the Hens-Kelly Company). I also decided to put in a bid on the piece on eBay but won't know whether I'm the buyer until the auction closes 9/24/00.

A brief report from Steve C. Drake

I thought fellow A.C.E. members would like a report of the 2000 NATCA Show. Fellow ACE member, Chuck Berger and the Omaha Coin Club did another fine job of organizing the show. I talked with at least a dozen ACE members at the show. There were a few encasements to be had. The hobby is growing so fast, it is difficult to find nice encasements for your collection. I thought I would build a year date collection of encasements. Before the show started I needed the 1918, 1921, 1987, 1990, and 1992. I was able to add the 1918 & 1921 dates to my collection, so if any of you have encasements with 1987, 1990, and 1992 in them, I would be interested in obtaining them. Early in the show, I talked with Randy Patin and Tony Chibbaro at their table. Tony had some encasements made to advertise for South Carolina Tokens. These encasements were round 45mm with the different state quarters in them. I thought they were great encasements. Tony had the first 8 state quarters encased. One added high light of these encasements was the misspelling of Tony's last name. The encasements say Tony Chibbard. (Tony plans to continue having the state encasements made)

Jerry Binsfeld is doing a great job of keeping ACE running. At the ACE business meeting the subject of dues was voted on. To keep ACE in the black and to be able to print larger newsletters, it was voted to raised dues to $15 a year. I feel this is still a bargain considering how much information is in each issue of "The Casement." Another topic of conversation was a rarity guide. As everyone knows in the field of exonomia, rarity guides are a hot topic. There are many different opinions on rarity guides, but the club decided to adopted the EV system (estimated value). As this rarity system is not perfect, at least it will be a start for collectors to have some ideas on what encasements are worth.

The 2001 NATCA show will again be in Omaha, so mark your calendars for September 1 - 2, 2001.

Home after 51 Years by Jim Lawnizak

There is an interesting story that goes along with the maverick piece, 1949D, L. & G. Laikin/ House of Service Est. 1914// [phone]/ Elec. [hole] Supplies piece that was recently sold on eBay for a mere $5.24. When I saw the piece, I thought it might be a NY piece appropriate for inclusion in the NY catalog, and I was already in NYC under Yahoo, so I asked Yahoo to tell me what nearby businesses were "Laikin." And there, in Hoboken NJ was a company called L & G Laikin. So I called the number and talked to the owner who confirmed that Laikin was an electrical supply company and was founded in 1914. It was now and always had been in Hoboken. So this is a NJ piece. The current owner was very interested in the 1949 advertising token for his company and asked me about it. He had no previous knowledge about encased coins or that this token existed. I told him it was still up for auction on eBay, and he turned out to be the high bidder. So an encased coin has gone home after 51 years.

PRESS RELEASE

Dear Numismatic Friend or Coin Club:

August 14, 2000

I am declaring my intentions to run for President of the American Numismatic Association for the 2001 - 2003 election. Having served several terms as Governor, I am the current Vice-President of the ANA. My name is John Wilson, an avid numismatist for the past 28 years and a retired Milwaukee County Deputy Sheriff. My interest in collecting encompasses U.S. and foreign coins and paper money, tokens and medals, ancient coins, porcelain coins and medals, numismatic books and exnumia. Along with my wife Nancy, we have won many national, regional and local club exhibiting awards. I am a recipient of the CSNS Medal of Merit; and along with my wife Nancy the Elston G. Bradfield and FUN Charles Fine Literary Awards. In 1998 both of us were honored with the Florida United Numismatists, A. J. Vinci Memorial - Excellence in Numismatic Education Award. I have written many articles for all types of club publications (local, regional and national), along with the numismatic press to promote the hobby and collecting in general. I am the proud recipient of the ANA's Medal of Merit, Glenn Smedley and President's Award. I have been honored with the National Silver Dollar Roundtable Man of the Year Award. I am a past ANA Club Representative, District Delegate and Regional Coordinator. I received the Krause Publications Numismatic Ambassador Award in 1990.

I was the General Chairman for the ANA, 100th Anniversary Convention in Chicago in 1991. I was also the Co-Assistant General Chairmen for the 1986 Milwaukee ANA Convention. I was General Chairmen for the 1990 Milwaukee Central States Numismatic Society Convention which was one of the biggest they have ever had. I have assisted at numerous Boy Scout Coin Collecting Merit Badge Clinics and YN programs in Milwaukee. I have assisted with many Chicago International Coin Fair Young Numismatist programs. I assist at the Blue Ridge YN program. I have set out coin displays at libraries, banks & coin shows during National Coin Week events. I have given hundreds of educational numismatic talks. I have promoted the hobby by making available to non-profit organizations over 30 souvenir cards (to promote their show or event) that have been cataloged by the Souvenir Card Collecting Society. I am proud to be listed in Pete Smith's, American Numismatic Biographies. To promote the ANA, I have also made slide programs of numerous ANA Conventions.

I belong, and am involved in over 50 coin clubs at all levels of the hobby. I am a Life Member of many of them including several national organizations including ANA and ANS. I am the past President of the Central States Numismatic Society and past Board member of the Society of Paper Money Collectors. I currently serve on other numismatic Boards. I have also served as President of three Milwaukee area coin clubs.

I have always believed in working diligently to promote the hobby within the ANA and especially with education and young numismatists. As your President, I would work just as diligently to retain and bring new members to the hobby and promote numismatics. I would continue to be fair and open minded to all members of the ANA. My dedication and loyalty is for the betterment of the hobby of numismatics. I am a firm believer in a balanced budget and would work hard to keep it that way. When an important vote takes place, I will always try to do what is best for the hobby and our members. I will always listen to your viewpoints. Thank you, John Wilson, current ANA Vice President, Ocala, FL.

Thank You,
John Wilson

JUST ENCASED.....COLLECTING LUCKY COINS

by Chris Boyer sent in by Robert Landry from Canadian Coin News

Whether you call them lucky coins, souvenir pieces, or encased coins, these novelty items are a relatively inexpensive yet interesting line of numismatic collectible. This article will examine a few encased coins and talk about their composition, purpose and variety.

An encased coin is a regular coin that has been placed into the center of an outer ring, usually composed of aluminum or other material like plastic, which bears a legend of some kind. The legend may be to advertise, to commemorate, to act as a souvenir, or simply bear a personal message. Coins of Canada, the United States, and Great Britain are some of the pieces used in encased coins, but U.S. Lincoln head cents are probably the most commonly found.

The accompanying illustration shows a 1963 Canadian silver 10-cent coin in the center of a ring bearing the motto AMERICAN MUSEUM OF ATOMIC ENERGY-NEUTRON IRRADIATED. Both coin and ring are encased in an aluminum housing covered by a clear plastic window. Most encased coins, however, are composed simply of the aluminum outer ring surrounding the coin, usually a cent, although other denominations are known (e.g. Buffalo nickel). The illustration of the "Forsyth" lucky coin illustrates the use of a 1922 British farthing in an aluminum outer ring bearing the legend SHIRTS-CRAVATS-PAJAMAS. The outer ring need not always be circular in shape. Illustrated at bottom left is a 1956-D Lincoln cent in the form of a horseshoe, synonymous with good luck. Other shapes, such as the outline of a bell, are also known.

Just why would someone go to the trouble of having an encased coin made? Since the aluminum-encased versions require striking by a die by firms like Mintage Masters of Kewaunee, Wisconsin (which sets the coin firmly in the center of the ring) it would therefore be necessary to strike a quantity of these pieces. Souvenir encased coins as well as advertising coins are probably the most common usage of these items. Banks, businesses, and even numismatic firms have used these pieces as an advertising medium. Souvenir encased coins have been known for the City of Washington, DC, for example, or the Pan-American Exposition in Buffalo in 1991. In terms of a Canadian example, we looked earlier at the "Eaton's" encased cents, which were available in quantity up to the early 1950s. Some took to dislodging the cent from the center in order to spend the coin at face value. In so doing, the coin often bore the results of the encasing process, with rim damage and distortion. At the O.N.A. 2000 Convention in Toronto recently, intact Eaton's encased cents were changing hands for the $20. A pretty good return for a one-cent coin!

A few individuals have also chosen to have their own personal encased coins issued. {{{The horseshoe-shaped encased cent in the photograph was issued by R.P. Zloger, Justice of the Peace, which is an unusual item, to say the least.}}} Encased coins continue to be issued at the present times, such as by a prominent collector of train-related numismatics in Masury, Ohio.

Coin clubs, too, have issued encased cents recently as part of their anniversary celebrations. For example, North Dakota's Red River Valley Coin Club is issuing a 1960-dated Lincoln encased cent to commemorate its 40th annual show and sale. The reverse bears the legend KEEP ME AND NEVER GO BROKE and is available for U.S. $3 each or two for U.S. $5. To order, contact the club with a SASE and payment to RRVCC, c/o Leonard D. Otterson, 1318 9th Ave. S., Fargo, ND 58103-2506. The Corn Belt Coin Club of Illinois has issued a 50th anniversary encased cent, shaped like a horseshoe and bearing a 1950-dated Lincoln cent. Uncirculated versions can be had for U.S. each, circulated at U.S. $1.50. Orders, including payment and a SASE can be sent to CBCC, Box 24, Bloomington, IL 61702, USA.

Where can you obtain other encased coins for your collection? There are a few dealers who have a small quantity of these items at shows, and it is often a matter of good fortune if you find them. Dealer "junk boxes" and even antique and flea markets may have encased coins, although this too, is a matter of good fortune.

Are there other collectors of encased coins out there? Certainly, although such collectors of "exonomia" are probably relatively small in number.

While there is no organized club for collectors of encased coins, the Token and Medal Society (T.A.M.S) is a fine organization dedicated to exnumists.

A scholarly and informative article appeared in the April 1999 TAMS Journal by James M. Lawniczak entitled Encased Cents of the Pan American Exposition, which is commended to your reading. Membership in the T.A.M.S is U.S. $25 and inquiries can be directed to: T.A.M.S Inc., 9230 S. W. 59 Street, Miami, FL 33173, USA.

This collector got "hooked" on encased cents when a fellow Waterloo Coin Society member named Erich brought his collection of encased cents to club meetings and mall displays. Who knows? Maybe your, too, will find enjoyment in collecting these unusual and fascinating numismatic items.

Maverick-LA-12(855)21- by Bob Perdue

LA-12(855)21 - On our Table you'll find/Yellow Label/"Truly a Family Syrup/For Health, Food and Flavor", 1935, hs, knangb/ib/gl

I guess this would be an attribution for the maverick piece I sent in. It will be interesting to see what the ACE detectives come up with. The following e-mail came from Tom Densmore, Vice President Sales & Marketing. His e-mail address: tdensmore@whitefieldfoods.com:

"Hello Bob Perdue:

Thank you for your interest in Yellow Label Syrup. In 1935 Yellow Label Syrup was produced in Birmingham, Alabama by the Yellow Label Syrup Company. Would be interested in seeing a photo of the "Lucky Penny". You can order our products from the website and our products are available in the Indianapolis market through Grocery Supply."

Buy Codes by Todd J. Hagens

As I continue to get deeper and more serious into coin and exnumia collecting I have noticed that many dealers and collectors alike use codes for keeping track of their buy prices. It seems to make sense for when one goes to trade or sell its nice to have an exact cost of the pieces that you intend to sell or trade. I always think I am going to remember what I paid but in reality it doesn't happen thus the importance of a code.

Usually the codes are in letter form and are put on the 2x2's that house the coin or token. The codes are in various places on the 2x2 and sometimes the owner even uses different colored ink. Most use a word or words that use ten letters. Sometimes its their full name. Each letter represents a number 1 to 10. Example: Tod J Hagens. The "T" is used for one, "O" is for 2 and so fourth with "S" representing the 0. If an encased was purchased for $6.00. The code would be a.ss or a. As you can see sometimes the code can spell out a word. Hopefully your code doesn't send you many subliminal messages like this example. (Perhaps the buy was a poor one and the purchaser was an ass for buying it.) Another example, a Teddy Bear encased was purchased for $350.00. The code then would be dhs.ss or dhs.

Some guys get so good that they can add and subtract with their code. Some will add decoy letters such as x or z in front or in the back of the code. (x)a.ss or (z)a. or dhs.ss(x) or (x)dhs. The decoy letter makes it a little more difficult to break the code. However, most could care less what the owner paid but rather what the ask price is and whether or not the price represents a fair market value. Again, the code is more for the owner to keep an accurate record.

One collector friend uses the first 10 letters of the alphabet as his buy code. A=1, B=2, C=3, D=4, E=5, F=6, G=7, H=8, I=9 and J=0. If an item was bought for $6.00 the code would be F or F.JJ. If a coin was bought for $350. the code would be CEJ or CEJ.JJ. Another coin club member uses the last 10 letters of the alphabet. Q=1, R=2, S=3, T=4, U=5, V=6, W=7, X=8, Y=9 and Z=0. He also uses additions and subtractions as a decoy. If he paid $6.00 for one encased his code would be V or V.ZZ or QZ-T (10-4=6). If he paid .75 for a good for or trade token, his code would be .wu or wu. As you can see their are many possibilities. Perhaps you already have a system of keeping track of your cost and if not the above are some ideas for you to consider.

Holes in Encased by Jim Lawniczak

I noticed something interesting by looking at a few pieces on eBay and made pictures which are shown below. The two pieces had either a dot or a long dash at the bottom of the obverse.

My guess is that this is a mark made to signal where a hole should be made following the striking of the encased. On the pieces I saw, the hole hadn't been added.

The Stork Club Encased, from Bob Perdue

Here is an ad(below) I took from the September 2000 issue of COIN magazine, as the market will soon be flooded with these pieces I thought you might want to issue an alert.

The Stork Club

This famous New York night club was founded by Sherman Billingsley during the speakeasy era and was in business until the 1960's. It was a haven for the rich and famous, and even for the gangsters! It is said that JFK wooed Jackie here, that Hemingway, J. Edgar Hoover and even the Duke and Duchess of Windsor partied at the Stork Club. So exclusive, it is said that the head waiter once received a $20,000 tip! Although the Stork Club has now been gone for decades, we have been able to secure a genuine souvenir for the club. This Encased Cent holder was purchased by us empty, so we decided to add a BU Cent and make it appear like it did in the 1950's. As pictured, it reads "Heads to earn, Hearts to spend" and on the reverse "Good cheer and food in the Stork Club N.Y.". This classic (and now complete) Encased Cent is priced at only-

Dugan's Advertising mirror, from Bob Perdue

Below is a scan of an interesting item I came across about a year ago. I bought this mirror from a dealer in Cincinnati, Ohio. He assured me that in his opinion that it was in fact original and as you can see from the scan the cent is in backwards. I have looked it over very closely and can detect no tampering with it. As Jim Lawniczak is the representative of Ohio I sent the mirror to him and asked for his opinion on it. He also could not find any evidence of tampering and also consulted with Alan Weinberg on the mirror. There are several Possibilities why the cent is in backwards including tampering, operator error, or it may have in fact been intended to be made that way. I was curious if any other member would have this mirror with the cent in backwards or a different mirror with the cent in backwards. In some of Jim's research he indicates that a few mirrors may have indeed been made with a backward cent. Bob's address: 3215 Hardacre Court, New Castle, Indiana 47362

What Constitutes an Encased Coin - M. Allen

I believe an encased coin is any coin that is encased within and surrounded by another material such as aluminum, paper, cardboard, brass, plastic, wood, vulcanite, copper, nickel, silver, gold and where it was made to hold the coin with some degree of permanence. A coin or token that is merely resting in a glass covered jar obviously would not be classified as an encased coin but one made to rest in a permanent bottle or in a clear block of lucite would be.

A coin or coins that is housed in a cardboard holder and is made for that purpose is considered an encased coin by the above definition. The popular quarter map, Whitman folder and encapsulated third party graded coin is an encasement. The same is true for the the proof set, Susan B. Anthony, Ike Dollar or .999 round that is housed in a plastic container which is complete with a label and cardboard holder. This however is where the encased collector would most likely draw the line and would not wish to have that conglomeration in their encased collection. Generally speaking an advertisement, a city and state or something descriptive within the holder makes it desirable. Low on the pecking order would be the pictured bicentennial set. It is a type of encasement but again not what the encased collector desires. On the other hand, high on the encased collector's want list would be the pictured encased Indian cents displayed in a heavy stocked paper with advertisement from a by gone era. The Susan B. Anthony dollar housed in a similar holder with a clever ad slogan would also be collectible but obviously less desirable because of the age factor. The Indian cents example most likely is very rare and may be one of only a few examples that survived. So, supply and demand is also a big factor to the encased collector.

The Susan B. housed in a flip complete with bank advertisement would not be considered an encased coin mainly because it is free floating. The pictured sticker dollar is not an encasement because it is not surrounded and held by another material. These two examples may be desirable collecting items and fall into the area of exnumia but not specially encased.

A type coin made to fit within another larger type coin is an encased according to the above definition. Some disagree and feel that the coin within a coin that is hand made lacks the permanence definition.

The late M. Kohlman who put together a top notched encased collection and who wrote about encased in an early TAMS Journal and which was featured in The Casement several issues back was perhaps one of the first to collect the many different shapes and styles of encased. He gave his views as to what encompasses an encased in his fine TAMS article. Perhaps some ACE members can give their definition and opinion on what constitutes an encased.

By the way the Kolman collection was sold via a Kurt Krueger auction some years ago. Perhaps the editor may want to publish the sale as it occurred in the Krueger catalog and show the prices realized in a future issue of The Casement. I'm sure a good number of ACES would like to see what was offered. I know that particular Kurt Krueger catalog is on many collector's want list. Pictured on the cover of that sale was a Teddy Bear encased which is a rare and very desirable encasement.

Bicentennial set - Encased, yes, collectible, not really.....anyway not to the encased collector

Indian cent/bike ad ..encased, yes, collectible, very much so....

Sticker Dollar-encased? .no, collectible, to some.....

The Michael Kolman Encased Coin Collection

Encased Coin Collector's Club Associated Collectors of Encased (A.C.E.)

Do you collect encased coins? Do you want to get started in collecting encased to go along with your other collecting interests? There are probably 25,000 different encased which means there are plenty of different towns and states to collect. Plenty of different subject areas as well. If you want different denominations, certain dates or different shaped encasements those are possibilities too. If your answer is yes to either of the above questions then you might want to consider joining A.C.E. (Associated Collectors of Encased). Dues are $10.00 and with that you become a member and you get four issues of The Casement. Membership starts the month you pay your dues not January to January or July to July so come on aboard, after all, they say its only half as much fun without you. The quarterly journal/newsletter, called The Casement is sent to members in the Summer, Fall, Winter and Spring. This will enable you to gain information on encased, add to your collection and meet fellow collectors. Within the journal/newsletter are free classified ads, a member auction which is free to consignors, informational articles, a section devoted to identifying mavericks and more. Presently, there are approximately 160 members from 40 states.

To join, fill out this membership application and send it with a check for $10.00 made out to A.C.E. to: Jerry Binsfeld Box 580191 Pleasant Prairie, Wisconsin 53158
